1	-Family were informed sooner about not needing the parenting course. -We all have common issues and we can share how we solve these. -I also think it has a positive impact on SENDCO mental health, because the kids will be negatively impacted if we suffer and do not feel like we have support and ideas to continue.	3/27/2024 1:36 PM
2	The ideas in the forum will be disseminated to staff in school and good practice shared.	3/11/2024 10:51 AM
3	We work with professionals and can recommend schools to attend the virtual schools relational training and we can forward on the information from the one plus one digital information. This will all have a positive impact for children and their families.	3/8/2024 11:45 AM
4	Understanding of support for families and children in the local area.	3/8/2024 11:30 AM
5	Attending the SEND Forum have several positive impacts on children and young people with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND). Empowerment and Inclusion, Health and Well-Being those are just a few examples. I feel that, overall, forums bring valuable lived experiences and fresh perspectives, contributing to more informed decision-making. In addition there is an access to Support: Forums provide a platform for discussing SEND-related concerns and accessing necessary support services.	3/7/2024 2:25 PM
6	Able to take ideas back and use with children in setting. Little Miracles I nformation will help some of our parents who are struggling with behaviour and other problems. Signpost them to another service that could help.	3/7/2024 2:17 PM
7	Learning about training opportunities for students and parents is very useful	3/7/2024 2:16 PM
8	Lots of information about services I wasn't aware of	3/7/2024 2:15 PM
9	We find it really helpful to gain information - as a charity we often do not get all of the updates so its a fab way to gain additional information to support families but also to know how to support the LA better	3/7/2024 2:15 PM
